Grand Knight's Message

2008-2009

A Year of Service as Well as a Year of Celebration.

At the beginning of this Columbian year I challenged the members of Trinity Council that in lieu of our annual Charity Ball, we attempt to expand our involvement in our parish and local communities by taking on a number of smaller projects. Now with the end of Columbian year quickly approaching, and our county in dire need of those willing to help the growing number of people facing difficult times, I am extremely proud to inform our council family that we are making great progress towards this goal. Through a considerable amount of effort by a number Brother Knights who have taken on project coordination responsibilities, many excellent service projects have been planned and carried out. As I mentioned previously in this column, this call to service was kicked off with a three hour home maintenance service project last fall for a housebound parishioner from St Paul's parish. This was followed by an office furniture donation project lead by new member John Bastian and the coordination of a bread donation and delivery program to an inner city food pantry by Brother Ray Diehl. More recently, DGK Joe Kozelsky stepped forward and coordinated our council's assistance with a television upgrade project at Hill Haven that has eliminated the fear by the residents that their television reception would be lost with the up coming digital conversion. And last month, Brother Ken Pritchett lead a painting project at St. Mary's of the Lake to spruce up the youth space. At Holy Trinity, Council Warden Tom O'Connell and Brother Walt Kowalski have been working with the parish staff to generate a list of service projects that our council might be able to help with during the balance of the year.

These somewhat small, but extremely worthwhile projects clearly demonstrate that service to our church and fellowman doesn't always have to involve months of planning and commitment by large groups of men. All it takes is a few men to step forward and take on leadership roles to get the projects moving. For those of you who have done just that I wish to sincerely thank you. Your willingness to step out of your comfort zone and lead, as well as your commitment to follow a project through to completion, is very much appreciated. Without your help these noble projects would have never gotten off the ground. And to those of you who helped execute these projects, I thank you for sharing your time and God given skills to get the work done.

These wonderful projects, as well as all of our traditional council service activities, clearly illustrate Trinity Council's commitment to Charity and that by working together in Unity we can, as council Chancellor Dave McCoy put it, "Change the World One Knight at a Time". This is our tradition; this is our goal for the future. Thank you to everyone who contributes to all of the good works of this council and for making our 50th anniversary year not only a year of celebration but also a year of service to those in need.

Peace,

Trinity Council is assisting
Mt. Carmel Food Cupboard

Trinity Council has taken on another worthy cause – The Mount Carmel Food Kitchen. Mt. Carmel is located in the inner city and is administered by Sr. Karlein Bach. Her doorbell rings day and night by children or adults asking for food or basic needs. She rations out just enough to go around and yet still provide. They could use our help.

It is our hope that as we meet monthly for our dinner meetings, that we think also of people in need of basic nutritional and hygienic items that we can bring along for collection.

Dan and Margaret Milner will take responsibility to deliver our donations and can be reached at 671-4391 to answer questions and provide additional information and suggestions for personal contributions.

Typical needs or suggestions are:

- Children’s Cereal

- Fruit Cups
- Juice Boxes
- Cheese or Peanut Butter & Crackers
- Any Ready-to-eat food
- Rice (Uncle Ben’s converted)
- Canned goods w/easy open lids
- Disposable diapers
- Toilet paper
- Hats, gloves, mittens
- Individual pre-made pasta cups (Chef Boyardee)
- Anything nutritious and portable

Connecticut Church Rallies Against 1098

Article by Elizabeth Ela
Headline Bistro

The Connecticut legislation that proposed to strip administrative authority from Catholic priests and bishops has clearly woken a “sleeping giant” – the state’s Catholic population.

That was the opinion of more than one person – and at least one speaker – at a rally at the State Capitol in opposition to the bill.

On what would have been the day of Bill 1098’s public hearing in the General Assembly’s Judiciary Committee, bishops from the state’s three dioceses, along with other speakers, including Carl Anderson, Supreme Knight of the Connecticut-based Knights of Columbus, addressed a crowd of more than 5,000 Catholics and others concerned for religious freedom.

The overall theme of the rally: that Bill No. 1098 should never have been raised, that it smacked of anti-Catholicism and that the Catholic Church in Connecticut strongly supported the bishops and priests threatened by the legislation.

Yesterday, the two lawmakers who introduced the bill suddenly tabled it, removing it for the time-being from further discussion. It seems likely to be discussed again, after the legislative session ends.

This followed a week of outcry that the bill violated the First Amendment.

Despite a persistent drizzle and the cancellation of the hearing, thousands of Catholics from throughout the state came to the capitol determined to make sure their voices were still heard.

Breaking into song with renditions of “America the Beautiful” and “Faith of Our Fathers” and carrying signs calling for religious freedom, the crowd’s energy level was buzzing even before the addresses began.

They arrived early and remained upbeat, often interrupting the speakers with cheers of support.

Picking up the chant “leave our Church alone,” though, the crowd clearly conveyed its frustration over the bill, its proponents and the legislators who introduced it.

One sign played off the fact that Voice of the Faithful, a dissident group of lay Catholics, has been tied with Bill 1098’s creation. “My faithful voice says don’t divide my Church,” it read.

Supreme Knight Carl Anderson was one of the speakers on the steps of the state capitol, located an hour from the Knights’ headquarters in New Haven.

With its intent of wresting authority from Church officials and removing their vote in parish or diocesan affairs,

Anderson called Bill 1098 “an insult to every priest in the state of Connecticut.”

On behalf of the largest lay Catholic organization in America, Anderson said, “We are concerned that our bishops and our priests be treated with respect.”

Bishop Michael Cote of the Diocese of Norwich opened the rally with an invocation in thanks of freedom of religion and the Constitution.

He then launched into a criticism of those who would champion Bill 1098, who he said had to be either ignorant of its full implications “or openly antagonistic to the Church.”

Saying he hoped it was ignorance, rather than ill will, that directed the bill’s supporters, Bishop Cote added, “As women and men of faith ... we much prefer the protection of our Constitution to your unwarranted meddling.”

Bishop William Lori of Bridgeport recalled other incidents in American history that singled out Catholics with discriminatory legislation.

“Remember the Know-Nothings?” Bishop Lori asked. “I hope they’re not back.”

“Even a first-year law student would know that Bill 1098 is unconstitutional,” he said. “My 16-year-old knows that!” a protestor interrupted, to the crowd’s cheers. The bishop continued: “Let’s bury (this proposal) for good.”

“Our state has serious problems,” Bishop Lori concluded. “Our Church

has a part in solving those problems. Let freedom ring!”

By the time Archbishop Henry Mansell gave the last address, the crowd had settled into its almost back-and-forth interaction with the speakers.

When they began chanting, “We vote!” during the archbishop’s speech, he replied, “Yes, we do, and it’s important to remember that when we come to the polls next year in November.”

Many of the rally participants were constituents of the Connecticut lawmakers who introduced Bill 1098 to the Judiciary Committee last week. “McDonald – Stamford’s watching you,” one woman’s sign proclaimed, in reference to Democratic State Sen. Andrew McDonald. “People have embarrassed themselves” and the state of Connecticut in attempting to tamper with Connecticut’s current statute on religious corporations, Archbishop Mansell said.

The stated purpose of the law was to address financial mismanagement in parishes. But as speaker after speaker pointed out, parish finance scandals are rare. There are more than 300 parishes in Connecticut, but it was St. John’s Parish in Darien, Conn., that became a flashpoint of sorts in the Bill 1098 controversy since it is one of the two parishes in recent years struck by financial scandal under their former pastors.

Hank Satterthwaite, a parishioner of St. John’s, stood behind the speakers’ podium with a large group from his church.

Satterthwaite serves as chairman of the finance committee at St. John’s. “I have lived financial transparency in the Catholic Church and in the Diocese of Bridgeport,” said Satterthwaite, who began serving in his position right after the St. John’s scandal.

Because of the Church’s commitment to financial transparency and the safeguards it’s put in place to prevent such incidents from ever happening again, Bill 1098 was “not only constitutionally wrong but absolutely unnecessary,” Satterthwaite continued.

News reports have quoted Rep. Lawlor and Sen. McDonald as saying members of St. John’s, still concerned with the Catholic Church’s financial management, were the catalysts to Bill 1098.

Satterthwaite, however, said the St. John’s community has given its full support of its pastor and bishop and believes the Church has been open about its use of their money.

“I don’t think there’s anyone in the parish who’s in favor of (Bill 1098),” he said.

Hill Haven Cable Connect Project is completed

Hill Haven Nursing Home on Empire Boulevard recently converted all the resident's rooms from analog to digital TV signals and they needed help to connect the 355 rooms to the digital signal. We were asked to assist in the hook up. We had an excellent response with 16 K of C members singing up for the project. It took a little over one month to do this and the project was completed on Saturday March 8th. While many signed up to assist, the following Knights helped to complete the project before the others had a chance to help out. Thanks to: Mike Donovan, David McLellan, Dave Samuelson, Jay Hebert, Bob McNeill, David Schaertel, Bob Curtis and myself. In reality there were more than 355 hook-ups because many of the rooms were doubles. This was an excellent project well done by good people doing good things. Thanks to all.

T Shirts Are In

We have received our order of T Shirts. The unsubscribed sales were greater than anticipated, and because of this, we have ordered a few more in the most popular sizes in the event that there might be a demand for additional shirts. We have good news in that many of the original "subscribers" were not at the March meeting, but nevertheless, we have just about covered our expenses for the project. This means that from now on, any T shirts sold will be "profit" to the Council. As you may recall, this is a fund raising project for our administrative funds which are used to purchase supplies for membership, robes, etc. Thanks to the generosity of our purchasers/donors. Contact Joe Kozelsky to place an order at 787-0660, or jkozelsky@websterhearing.com.

"Run, Walk or Sit" fundraiser

We will be holding the first "Run, Walk or Sit" fundraiser for Council Administrative funds on June 6. More information will be forthcoming. This was originally conceived as a 5K road race event, but query of council members earlier clearly indicated that while many wished to support, not many really wanted to run. Imagine that! So, then we thought about a Run and Walk event, but soon realized that many Brothers really did not want to walk either, so we thought up the idea of sitting which appears to have been a great idea. This is because members can sit at the Center during the event and drink a few beers (or Manhattans), or sit in the comfort of their own home and wait to be updated about the results at their convenience should actually they care about the results. We don't care where you sit as long as you register and send in your $20.00 registration fee. If you would rather sit at home and cheer us on, or not - that's OK by us. Of course, we would rather have you with us, but 20 bucks is 20 bucks.

Preliminary contact with the Town and the Webster Police Department and the Village has indicated that it seems that we can do pretty much as we want, where we want, and when we want. So, while we are not fully convinced of this as of this at this point, we will proceed as if this true. Right now we are planning on starting at the Center and ending at the Center- if we can find an appropriate 5K (3.1) mile route and a 2.0 mile walking route. Determination of the sitting "route" is expected to be considerably less complicated. Sitters: start training now and get your "whatevers" in shape. Re: the run. Think of this as a "Fun Run" and that this is for bragging rights only. We will have multiple age categories and we will not guarantee anywhere near accurate times, but, we will keep very close attention of how runners place, and there will be recognition of place by gender and by age. This is by invitation, so please invite anyone you want whom you would think would support our cause. They just need to understand that the funds raised are for our council and NOT for charity.

Added note: Brother Knight Steve Dwyer will be checking to see if we can arrange for two or three ping pong tables so that we can have a mini ping pong tournament afterwards.

More in the next issue and at the next general meeting.
