Grand Knight's Message

Off to a great start

With eighty one Brother Knights and two potential new members gathering for an outstanding steak dinner on September 1, the 2011-2012 Columbian Year is now off and running. Thanks to the brevity of all of the speakers at the council meeting that followed, we were able to fulfill our promise of an hour long meeting while still covering all the important topics on the agenda.

As everyone knows, fall is typically the busiest season of the year for our council and this year is no exception. With a wonderful WCC mortgage burning party behind us, we now move on to a number of annual events that help set the tone for the remainder of the year. As I mentioned in my column last month, we are in need of help from our "minimally active" members to contribute their time to the various events and activities that are already on our busy calendar. While the appearance of some new names on the volunteer sign-up sheets from the council meeting was encouraging, more help is needed to assist the men who have stepped forward to chair these important events. Equally important though, is the need for members to come out and attend our special council functions. This is especially important for our Religious Appreciation Dinner that is scheduled for Sunday October 16th and the Deceased Members Mass and Breakfast on Sunday November 6th. (Please see articles elsewhere in this edition of the Compass for more details on the events.) These are important opportunities for the membership of this council to show support for the clergy and religious who give up so much to enhance our spiritual lives. In a likewise manner, we need to show support for the families for our Brother Knights and Auxiliary members who have been called home to the Lord by our attendance at the Deceased Members Mass and Breakfast. Be assured that we are aware that money is tight for many and we are working very hard to minimize the cost of these events.

So I close with a simple request, if you have some time to spare and your health allows, please consider giving our event chairmen a call and offer to help them out. If circumstances prevent you from assisting, please consider attending to show your support for their efforts and for the recipients of our charitable acts. As our opening council dinner meeting showed, a successful outcome for any event depends on both attendance and involvement. We are off to a great start, let's keep the momentum going and make 2011-2012 another year memorable year for Trinity Council.

Vivat Jesus,
Dave Uerz, GK

Trinity Council Continues to support
Sister Regis Food Cupboard

The Sister Regis Food Cupboard (formerly known as the Mt. Carmel Food Cupboard) is located in the inner city and is administered by Sr. Julia Norton and assisted by Sr. Karlein Bach. There doorbell rings day and night by children or adults asking for food or basic needs. She rations out just enough to go around and yet still provide. They could use our help.

It is our hope that as we meet monthly for our dinner meetings, that we think also of people in need of basic nutritional and hygienic items that we can bring along for collection.

Dan and Margaret Milner will take responsibility to deliver our donations and can be reached at 671-4391 to answer questions and provide additional information and suggestions for personal contributions.

LET THERE BE LIGHT!

Andy Weidman, PGK

As we forlornly move forward into autumn’s ever-lengthening days of darkness we are comforted somewhat by the knowledge that the Webster Columbus Center’s free-standing message board is once again illuminated. And not by chance either. Barney Quinlan and Phil Rhonke, PGK fixed it by replacing the underground electrical cable that gave out. And while they were at it, Barney and Phil hooked up a new rear outlet to power the elaborate tents that house visiting sheiks from the corner of East Avenue and Chestnut Street in Rochester and points beyond. No more changing letters in the dark, Don Bell!

ALAMO POSTSCRIPT

Andy Weidman, PGK

In an article in last month’s Compass (“Bingo Players Storm WCC”) we told how Bingo Team 8 withstood an onslaught of 168 bingo players on July 26th. We named each hero. But we failed to mention the two Special Ops members who are there each week to lay the groundwork for the week’s defense. Their names are classified, so we cannot name them here. Suffice it to say that all of the members of all bingo teams know who they are. And it goes without saying that all bingo team members owe their survival each week to them.

TRINITY COUNCIL'S BENEFIT PASTA DINNER

Grand Knight David Uerz: “Past Grand Knight Don Bell’s eleven year old grandson, Simon Harris has been courageously fighting cancer for an extended period of time. In recent months Simon and his family has made numerous trips to Sloan-Kettering in NYC in order to obtain the best possible care possible for him. These trips are emotionally draining as well as physically exhausting and financially burdensome. Due to our prayers, up to this point Simon and the family have been holding up well but the time has come for Trinity Council to provide emotional and financial support of this special family.” Stay tuned for details from the committee.

Many Hands Make For Messy Work.

COUNCIL MEMBERS SPRUCE UP NORTH PONDS PARK

Andy Weidman, PGK

Among the joggers, dog walkers and senior citizens out for their evening constitutional at Webster’s North Ponds Park one Monday each month from May to September can be found a team of vigilant Knights from Trinity Council. Dressed in snazzy sweat-revealing red Trinity Council t-shirts and armed with silver lances they are out to clean up any garbage they see lying on the ground. Paper plates that blow away from picnic pavilions. Wind-borne missiles from bordering Route 104. They usually end up with two or three garbage bags full after their one hour shift. Asked what the most unusual thing he’s found is, volunteer Bob Leschhorn says “You don’t want to know.” Meaning, you need to sign up to find out.

And their reward? The satisfaction of leaving the park in better shape than they find it. “The walkers are really appreciative of what we are doing,” notes North Ponds Park Cleanup Brigade Chairman Chris Joy.

Let Us Pray

For our Veterans, that we always remember those who have given their lives for our freedom and that we support our troops as they return home. We pray especially for Josh Steinhilber, a fellow Brother Knight from Trinity Council.

Prayer for our troops: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. AMEN

For our Seminarians, that the Lord gives these men the strength to remain committed to answering God's call to serve Him and his people in a special way.

For members of the Permanent Deaconate Program, especially Rick Rall from Trinity Council. That the Lord will encourage them in their studies and help them find the right balance in their lives for their studies, their families and the Lord's calling to do his work.

Our Council Brethren and family members and who are ill, under treatment or recovering.
