Grand Knight's Message

It seems that every Columbian year brings with it new challenges and opportunities to do things better than ever before, no matter how good things were before. And in 2013-2014, I'd like to propose a few themes for your consideration and reflection...individually and with your families, I will use these ideas as my own personal guides this year, but if you like them, then they become "ours"

First of all I want to be "Free to be me" I'm Thomas Freundsuh, husband, father, grandfather, a caretaker for my father-in-law and his dog, a full time employee along with being the caretaker for two different properties. In addition to being grand Knight. I am the Compass Editor, the Vocations Chairman for the Finger Lakes Chapter Knights of Columbus and the Editor of the Empire State Bulletin for the New York State Council Knights of Columbus. All of these projects entail heavy responsibilities. In order to do all of them, my priorities need to be set, decisions are made and actions are taken.....But sometimes too much time is spent here, when it should be there, schedules are missed; people get angry or ornery, etc; etc; Sometimes I wonder whether or not all of the hassle is necessary.

But amid all of the struggles that will occur, we all need to be free to be whoever we are. Sometimes maybe even, a failure at something! But we need to be strong enough (which we are) for whatever happens. I'll do my best in everything in which I am involved, and I hope that you will too.

Secondly I remind myself that "tomorrow is still untouched. NO matter how messed up today might seem, there is always the opportunity to do it different and better tomorrow.....whether it is an event that bombed or a meeting to which hardly anyone came. We can always join together in the true spirit of unity and fraternity, and solve the problem or implement the project.

Last but not least, I am reminded of a favorite comment of Fr. John Powell's: Christ in our lives can solve all the problems we have now have, or ever will have. How true and how relieving. It is so great to know that HE can help in any problem. Praise Him.

My term of office has started with a bang: bills that need to be paid, the awareness of a member that needs assistance, and a variety of other little problems to be dealt with in just three months. But I have confidence in my abilities, your abilities and the power of the Lord. With His help tomorrow will be touched by us, in a positive way.....and we'll all be FREE TO BE ME!

Thank you PGK Stan Zawacki for the inspiration for this article. Rest in Peace.

Past Grand Knight Column

As a two "term" Grand Knight of Trinity Council, this column has provided me the opportunity on more than forty occasions to highlight the accomplishments of this council and encourage the involvement of our members in council activities. Through the hard work of all the members of this council, together we have completed many wonderful projects in our efforts to fulfill Fr. McGivney's vision of an organization that supports our church and serves those in need. As we are all aware, this is an extremely active council with a proud history of members who consistently demonstrate their personal commitment to fulfill our founder's vision. Hopefully my selection of this year's recipients of our council awards properly reflects our council's appreciation of the "above and beyond" special effort displayed by these members and their families as they strive to help this council fulfill its mission. While comments that bring to light the contributions of these special members and their families are highlighted elsewhere in this edition of the Compass, I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank each recipient for their commitment to the work they have done. While many of their activities were done behind the scenes at our parishes or at the council officer level, please be assured your council family recognizes your efforts and is proud of the example you display to our community of what being part of the Knights of Columbus is all about.

Being that this is my final Compass column, I would be amiss if I failed to thank some special people who have made serving my second term possible.

First and foremost I must thank my wife Kathy for her continued support of both my efforts on behalf of the council and her leadership with the Ladies Auxiliary. While neither of us ever planned on returning to leadership roles when our first terms were completed in 2009, we both take great pride in the outstanding accomplishments that our respective portions of our organization have achieved and sincerely thank all of you who have contributed to their success. Secondly, I would like to thank our Knight of the Year, Dean Hamingson for his outstanding leadership as our Deputy Grand Knight. He not only helped me manage the numerous day-to-day tasks that are required to keep this council running smoothly, he also took charge, identified and addressed a large number of administrative gaps that had opened up in our operational procedures in recent years. In addressing these, Dean has helped assure a bright, long term future for our council. I feel extremely blessed to have had a man of his character at my side and as a close friend.

Finally and most importantly, I must thank past and now once again current Grand Knight, Tom Freundsuh for agreeing to come back for a one year term to allow our new Deputy Grand Knight, Steve Tedesco time to learn the ropes before seeking election to the position of Grand Knight in June of 2014. In addition, I would also like to personally thank Tom for taking on the coordination of the 2013 council picnic at the last minute which allowed me to stay in the background as I recovery from recent surgery. Taking on the council picnic was never part of the discussion when Tom accepted this additional term and his actions clearly demonstrate his commitment not only to the council but to a fellow Brother Knight in his time of need.

In closing, Kathy and I would like to once again thank all of you for your prayers and support during some challenging times for our family over the past two years. God has certainly taken us down a bumpy path in recent years but with His Grace and your help, what had once appeared to be insurmountable mountains have been smoothed out into hills that we feel we can now climb.

God Bless,

Trinity Council Musings

Make your reservations today to attend the annual Deceased Members Mass and Breakfast on Sunday, November 3. (Details on how can be found elsewhere in this issue of the Compass.) Plan on breaking toast with the surviving family members of our beloved deceased members. After all, the Knights of Columbus was founded to support family members of a deceased member.

We are entering the home stretch of this year's C&B campaign. Please don't let Chairman Joe Dilal down as he strives towards the Council goal of 400 books. If you haven't returned your sold books yet bring them to the November 7 General Membership Meeting where Joe will gladly relieve you of them - and your payment. And one other thing: if you are asked to sell C&B before and after the Mass you attend please say "yes." The disabled we support are depending on you.

Please be sure to personally extend a warm welcome to Trinity Council's new District Deputy, George Schenk. Ditto Father John Mulligan who has checked into Holy Trinity Church's rectory... We hear that Bob Leschhorn's Chain

Gang, their Summer cleanup rounds completed, are busy testing North Pond Park's new disc golf course with all of the stray discs they recovered over the Summer... Who says our Grand Knight doesn't have star power?: Hats off to those members who stayed to the end of the October General Membership Meeting notwithstanding the fact that the Buffalo Bills were making a rare Thursday Night Football appearance simultaneously there-with... Have these guys ever considered unionizing?:

Team #9 were very, very busy October 8th setting up all available chairs in the entire hall to accommodate the needs of a local medical insurer. In case you're wondering, that's over 200 chairs.

As we sit here at Compass Central in the waning hours of Columbus Day (observed) composing our thoughts, we cannot help but wonder "HAS THE COUNCIL'S PICTURE OF CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS BEEN FOUND?" Either way, prayers are in order... Congratulations to Brother Dick Jester for being named Man Of The Year by the Webster Columbus Center. Well-deserved, well-deserved... We wish caterer Jason DeLeo a speedy recovery from recent surgery.

No question about it. Thanksgiving is first and foremost a time for giving thanks with family and friends. This Thanksgiving, however, we also have a unique opportunity to support a very special Brother Knight, Walt Kowalski. Walt, beset with medical problems and their attendant bills, is being honored at the Council's Annual Pasta Dinner at the WCC the afternoon and evening of Saturday, November 30th. Please consider recognizing, by attending the Dinner or otherwise, this gentleman who has unselfishly given so much to his council and church.

Capital Fund Drive

Fellow Knights:

Our Columbus Center is over 30 years old. We have maintained it over the years and will continue to do so. We have established a Capital Fund to help us fund needed projects to enhance the Center. We invite all members to consider pledging $500 (or more if your financial position allows) over the next 5 years. Lump sum or one time. Capital Fund Dollars would also be appreciated. These dollars are specifically placed into a Capital Fund Account and used only for projects. Over the past two years we have already used Capital Fund Dollars for Ceiling Tile Replacement, New Sliding Door in Center of Hall, Updating Men's and Women's Bathroom (pictures provided) and Blacktopping the front parking lot.

Future projects on our Want List include, new sliding door in the bar area, new carpeting, pavilion on the west side of hall (new storage facilities also), tables, chairs and bar stools, east side of the roof replacement. These are just a few of the areas we will be using future Capital Funds for. The list will continue to grow and our priorities will be determined. Your input into our Want List is also important and welcome any ideas and or comments. We also solicit your help in becoming active and consider joining the WCC Board Of Directors that oversees the Columbus Center. This is our home and we are proud of it and need your support.

A letter will be coming to you in November with all the information to make your donation to the Capital Fund. I will be at the November Council Meeting and can answer any of your questions. Thank you, Mike Donovan

Coats For Kids Program
by Jim "Stew" Coon, Chairman

With many families with young children continuing to struggle in these challenging economic times, there has never been a better time to help provide warm winter coats to children in our own community through Supreme Council's "Coats for Kids" program. During the 2012/2013 winter season, 918 Councils purchased and distributed 42,516 new winter coats to children in the United States & Canada. I am proud to say, through the generosity of our Council, the Ladies Auxiliary and the most generous donations of my Brother Knights, we raised enough money to purchase 72 coats for distribution last December! Organizations which helped with distribution to children in need were: Trinity Hope House, Webster Central School District, St. Martins Outreach, & House of Mercy.

New coats for distribution will again be obtained through Supreme at a cost of $220.00 per dozen, (includes shipping), or $18.35 each. I am confidently counting on meeting, if not exceed, last year's distribution of 72 coats.

We will be accepting donations, as well as selling chances to win a golf bag at our November meeting. If you are unable to attend the meetings you may donate by mailing a check payable to: Trinity Council 4618.
