Grand Knight's Message

Tidbits Once Again

For the Love of Walt. Besides what you will see and read about the November 30th Pasta Dinner for Walt Kowalski on the inside pages of this issue, two additional things need to be stated. First, if any names are missing from those who worked on the event, an apology is here by stated. As much as everything needs and tries to be captured, something or someone, usually gets missed.

Secondly, a portion of the proceeds from the dinner have already been put to good use. Walt now has firewood and heating oil for the winter, doctor and dental bills have been paid and his portion of upcoming dental surgery (prior to his knee surgeries) has also been covered. Additionally, Walt and his family were presented with a new stove, since his old one no longer functioned.

Member Name Tags. As of late, a portion of the membership has inquired about the name tags used at council meetings and events. The name tags are available for $8, payable by the member. New members are given their name tag, but the cost is part of their initiation fees.

Official Membership Notice. Ask any Past Grand Knight. It takes an abundant amount of work to prepare the agenda and ready oneself for the monthly membership meeting. In the last few months, this GK has been asked to create sign up sheets the day of the meeting and people have walked up to me just prior to the meeting wanting to speak at the same stated meeting.

It is the job of the Grand Knight to control the length of the meeting. This can easily be satisfied if the agenda is managed and even more so complete, prior to the meeting itself. Many compliments are distributed from the membership to the council leadership when meetings are completed in sixty minutes or less. I have always strived to have each meeting meet that time window.

In order to facilitate a stimulating, fruitful and timely membership meeting, from this point forward, no sign up sheets will be distributed or time granted to speak at a meeting unless a request has been presented to the Grand Knight by the end of the day, Monday, prior to that Thursday's meeting.

A great day of Charity. December 14th was a great day for Trinity Council. On one side of the Webster Columbus Center Poinsettia Plants were being distributed for delivery and on the other side, coats for kids that need them were being unpackaged and readied for distribution. As I stated in my first GK column, tomorrow is still untouched. December 14th proved however, that we might be getting closer.

Happy New Year from:
Tom & Carol Freundsuh

Trinity Council Musings

After the November General Membership Meeting we now know the reason for District Deputy George Schenk's attendance: to come to the rescue when the Grand Knight forgets his reading glasses...Seven sign up sheets made the rounds at the November General Membership Meeting Ask Joe Dilal, PGK how many of them he signed. ... Did you happen to notice that the November Compass featured paper that was slipperier than normal? Speaking of the Compass, rumor has it that the Circulation Department, in the person of Karl Steigerwald, is looking into delivering the paper copies by drone within 30 minutes of their publication. Our late Editor, Ken Waehner, would be proud.

Don Bell, PGK and Gene VerSchneider, peddling citrus at Holy Trinity Church to aid the Cody Assembly, were spotted helping a parishioner locate her car after Mass. Knowing them, we're sure they would have done the same thing even if she hadn't purchased a box of grapefruit. And for us? The satisfaction of scooping the Cuddy Chronicle... Welcome home, Chris! We are happy to report that a picture of Christopher Columbus has returned to its roost on the west wall of the North Hall.

Knights of Columbus Insurance representative Steve Marone was the first to mention the name of the new Bishop of Rochester, His Excellency Salvatore Matano, at the November General Membership Meeting. He encouraged Knights to sign up to be an usher at the Installation Mass to be held on Friday, January 3, 2013 at 2 p.m.. at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Tickets are impossible to secure, so this would be your best bet to get inside the pearly gates. And Dave Uerz, 2xPGK, will do exactly that.

Good to see Judge Donald Mark in attendance at the Pasta Dinner... Speaking of pasta dinners – one can never have too much pasta – Holy Trinity's Youth Group, will have theirs on Saturday, January 25 from 5 to 7 p.m. at their gym, the one named after the late Neil Murphy, PGK. It is open to the public with tickets available at the door...Council Program Director Dean Hamingson wants all to know that Trinity Council has 52 – count 'em, 52 – active programs. We bet that number keeps Dean lying awake at night. A belated Trinity Council "welcome" to transfer member Jerry Bennett. $35.00 bus tickets are available for the January 22 March For Life in Washington D.C. Call Brother Dan Scalzo (872-6126) if you are in a position to participate in this pilgrimage with others from Trinity Council.

And now the news you've all been waiting for: It was new member Dave Gilfoy who impersonated Santa Claus at the C&B Christmas Party on December 2nd. He was also spotted – in street clothes – working the food line. (We thought that was why Santa has elves like Dave McCoy.) And if working with McCoy wasn't bad enough, two days earlier Gilfoy had the misfortune of being paired with Andy Weidman, PGK in working the ticket table at the Pasta Dinner. No, Brother Gilfoy, the Knights of Columbus does not sanction hazing.

As we have pointed out before, GK Tom Freundsuh has star drawing power. There was an SRO crowd at the December General Membership meeting despite competition from the live broadcast of the 2013 edition of the Sound of Music... Once again Insurance Rep Marone had inside information on Bishop of Rochester-elect Matano. He reported that when His Excellency buzzed into town under the radar in late November for a clandestine meeting at Sacred Heart Cathedral he dropped in, unannounced of course, at a Knights of Columbus gathering there. It was obvious from the Bishop's remarks that he knew all about the K of C, being an honorary Fourth Degree Knight himself.

Leave it to Brother Dave Wirley, this year's Keep Christ In Christmas coordinator, to put the exclamation point on C&B chairman PGK Joe Dilal's C&B report at the December General Membership Meeting. Only after Joe gave his final accounting for the just concluded campaign – 430 sold books – did Wirley go up and turn in his two sold books...The Compass Editor has a publication schedule that would confound the NSA, let alone the Compass staff.

What a thrill it was to see transitional deacon Peter VanLeishout from the Diocese of Rochester - Livonia, to be exact - play a prominent role in the Papal Midnight Mass... Thanks to Dave Uerz, Joe Dilal and Don Bell for helping out with the Special Olympics Bowling outing. Way to go, PGKs!

Coats for Kids Wrap Up
J. Stewart Coon, Chairman

We surpassed last year's dollar amount, collecting a total of $1540.00 so that we could purchase one more dozen than last year, for a total of 7 dozen, 84 coats.

Special thanks to 3 major contributors. The Ladies Auxiliary again this year contributed $200.00. Also 2 Brother Knights each gave over $200.00 to the fund. I wish again to thank all who donated to this program. Without your generosity it would never be such a success.

All Coats were distributed on Saturday 12/14, with some children coming to the Columbus Center to try on and pick out a coat of their liking. We had one young boy about 8 years old, ask if we knew of boy he could give his old coat to. It was a rewarding day for sure. The following agencies benefited from your generosity: Trinity House of Hope (21coats), Villa of Hope (14), St. Martins Place (18), House of Mercy (12), Focus Pregnancy Group (10), Wayne Central School District (8) and St. Mary's Church Ontario (1).

In closing I would like to recognize my Brother Knights who helped me along the way, including Tom Dole, Mike Donovan, Dean Hamingson, Ron Meyer and Dave Uerz, PGK.

God Bless,
J. Stewart Coon, Chairman

Prayer For Those In Need

Father of goodness & love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our council, their families and friends, and for all those who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence.

Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole, and free downcast spirits. May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and join us in thanking you for all your gifts. With Mary we ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believed. Amen.

Pulling Out All The Stops For Walt

“And on the seventh day the Grand Knight rested, his sense of humor still intact.”

On the Saturday after Thanksgiving last the eagerly anticipated Pasta Dinner for Walt Kowalski’s benefit was held. For reasons best known by the Holy Spirit, Grand Knight Tom Freunds Schuh was the event’s Chairman. He was ably assisted by a committee consisting of Allison Neumann, Don Bell, PGK, Phil Rohnke PGK, Don, PGK, and Joann Fisher Dick and Nora Doser, Joe Dilal, PGK, Bud Shura, Dave McCoy, Dan Scalzo, John Strowbridge, Marc Nelson, Joe Schillaci, Jack “Napkins” Czerniawski, Art Manning and Lisa Kowalski.

In terms of hours worked, hats off to the Fishers and Art Manning who spent the better part of the day of and the day before making and prepping the late Joe Obbie’s famous sauce. In that league hours-wise was the omnipresent Marc Nelson. And don’t forget the set up and take down crew that bookended the day. This was handled by Phil Rohnke, PGK with assistance from Bruce and Adrienne Brauch, John Strowbridge, Karl Steigerwald, Ginny Hurzy, Daniel Hurzy, Joe Dilal, PGK, Don Bell, PGK and Jack Czerniawski. Manning also tended bar and was assisted by Dick McHale, PGK, Sandy Mitch and Bud Shura and their Wine Mobile. Dave McCoy served as Maitre ‘d. Assisting in the kitchen were Bob & Donna Baumgartner, Mike & Linda Donovan, Richard & Nora Doser, Donna McNinch, Pat Obbie, Ginny Hurzy, Joe & Millie Schillaci and Shirley Thomas. The dishwashers? Who could forget brothers such as Joe Janiak, Joe Kozelsky, PGK, Deacon Rick Rall, Steve Dietl, Dave Samuelson and Don Bell, PGK.

Braving the elements on November 30th are parkers Ken Pritchett, Dan Scalzo, Ed Wynne and Gene VerSchneider

Perhaps the most uncomfortable job was that of the parkers under the leadership of Dan Scalzo – warming up for the January 22, 2014 March For Life? - who toiled outside in the dark and wintry conditions (read: cold) that marked the holiday weekend. One parker came in looking like the Abominable Snowman in black. Turned out it was only an exhausted Bob Keown, PGK, who worked the detail. Other hardy souls included Ed Wynne, Gene VerSchneider, Tom Schoenwetter, PGK, David Powe, Ken Pritchett, and Bob McNeill.

The Chinese Raffle organized by Allison Neumann was a big hit. (Did you catch Brother Joe Schillaci’s meticulously handcrafted “Tin

Joe Schillaci’s meticulously handcrafted “Tin Man”

Man” from the Wizard of Oz?). Assisting Allison was Donna Goundry, while her husband Tom assisted Mark Neumann with the 50/50 tickets.

The star attraction was, of course Brother Walt Kowalski. He was in attendance along with numerous members of his extended family. They provided support for what had to be a truly emotional day for the guest of honor. A close second star power-wise was Walt’s close friend, Roosevelt Bouie. For “The Cause” (no ,we didn’t mean continued on next page

Brother Walt Kowalski and his family with Syracuse Basketball Legend, Roosevelt Bouie

“ ’Cuse”) the former Kendall and Syracuse Orange hoops star signed autographs for his many admirers in attendance. Collecting the donations while Roosevelt signed away was Bruce Brauch.

Thanks also to all the Ladies of the Auxiliary who contributed baked goods for sale at the Dinner. Their President, Linda Kozelsky, made all of the arrangements. Assisting Linda at the sales were Mary Margaret Carney, Judy Pellittieri, Gale Jones, Joanne Bennage, Judy McHale, Kristin Kozelsky, Michael Kozelsky and Samantha Smith. It was a testament to the hard work of the ladies that enough yummies were contributed to more than adequately feed the multitude. (You should have heard Joe Dilal, PGK on the mic hawking the leftovers to a captive and defenseless audience of clean-up workers.) And thanks for all the establishments which donated food, including Barilla America and LiDestri Foods.

Assisting on the day from the Auxiliary of Trinity Council are Gail Jones, Joanne Bennage and Judy McHale.

We are deeply indebted to the Boy Scouts and Youth Group from Holy Trinity for waiting on our 330 guests. Thanks also to our neighbors U.S, Postal Service, Northern Gymnastics, Orville’s, Xceed Financial and Comb & Razor for graciously (except for Comb & Razor where Bob Leschhorn got a scalp in exchange) allowing overflow parking on their premises. After their cards were parked they were greeted at the door by the day’s ticket takers, Marc Nelson, Bob McNeill, Andy Weidman, PGK and Dave Gilfoy.

Last but not least thank you to the family of Walt Kowalski for their general support and to Barney Quinlan for his assistance with the Webster Columbus Center.

Well done, one and all. As we have noted before, it is truly amazing what can be accomplished when many hands contribute.

Thoughts from the Chairman FOR THE LOVE OF WALT

It never ceases to amaze me how the family of Trinity Council comes together to support one of their own. The magnitude of love inside the Webster Columbus Center on Saturday, November 30th needed a scale comparable to the Richter Scale for earthquakes to measure. Once again you confirmed how right George and Mary Freundschuh (my parents) were when they told me if I ever wanted to join a great organization, join the Knights of Columbus.

For me personally and to many others it was equally important to see the legend of Joe Obbie live on. Between Pat working in the kitchen and the recipe of Obbie’s sauce at work, the good times continue on at Trinity Council.

I am grateful to everyone for their support. I am especially grateful to “THE COMMITTEE” who I would never hesitate to work with again. I make special mention of Allison Neumann whose efforts on the Chinese Raffle profited $1100. Then come Don and Joann Fisher.

*May God Bless one and all.

Council Holds Christmas Eve Mass At Hill Haven

Approximately 60 residents of Hill Haven Nursing Home celebrated Jesus' birthday on Christmas Eve as it should be celebrated, at Mass, thanks to several Brother Knights and Reverend William Amann who we borrowed from Penfield Council.

rence Welk), Bob McNeill, Pam and Jim Rousseau, PGK, Andy Weidman, PGK, Dave Wirley Joe Dilal, PGK, Tom Schoenwetter, PGK and Dave McCoy made it all possible.

Donation to the Webster Public Library Ron McNinch

For the 9th year the Knights of Columbus has donated $100.00 to the Webster Public Library. The Director of the Library has sent us a Thank You for our generous support.

It has been a great privilege to coordinate this donation for the past 9 years. I am choosing at this time to pass the bookmark on to a fellow Brother Knight. Deacon Rick Rall has graciously accepted this task.

Appearing in the Webster Library soon are the following 2013 donation titles:

Jesus of Nazareth: From the Baptism in the Jordan to the Transfiguration

In his first book written since being elected Benedict XVI, the Pope offers readers a look at someone other than the "historical" Jesus focused on by the scholarship over the last century.
